

PERSHING Health System

The AutoPulse CPR Machine was donated by Walsworth Publishing Co.
and the same amount matched by other anonymous private donors.

The AutoPulse is an automated, portable, battery-powered cardiopulmonary resuscitation device. It was designed to allow professionals to continue providing high-quality chest compressions. The AutoPulse automatically measures chest size and resistance before it delivers the unique combination of thoracic and cardiac chest compressions. The compression depth and force varies per patient. The chest displacement equals a 20% reduction in the anterior-posterior chest depth.